Your 15-minute Sunday plan

Print the weekly plan and grocery list as many times as you like. Sit down for 15 minutes on Sunday, follow the prep list, and the weeknights take care of themselves.

1. Look at the week
   Mark sports, late meetings and busy evenings. Those nights get a 20-minute idea from the list.
2. Let your child pick
   Use the Kids' Menu Picker: one veggie, one fruit, one favorite. Kids eat more of what they chose.
3. Fill the weekly plan
   Breakfast, lunch, dinner and snacks. Repeat favorites – nobody needs seven new recipes a week.
4. Write one grocery list
   Sorted by aisle, so the shop takes half the time.
5. Prep once
   Follow the Sunday Prep checklist. One hour on Sunday saves a lot of weeknight stress.

Printing tips

US Letter and A4 PDFs included. Slip the weekly plan into a sheet protector and use a dry-erase marker to reuse it.

FOR LITTLE HANDS

Kids' Menu Picker

Read the words together and let your child color one circle in each column. Write the picks into the weekly plan – and tell them it was their idea.
